JUDICIAL SERVICE (AIJS)

Why in News

“The central government is preparing to give a fresh push to the establishment of an All India Judicial Service (AIJS) on the lines of the central civil services.

- ✎ The AIJS is a reform push to centralise the recruitment of judges at the level of additional district judges and district judges for all states.
- ✎ The AIJS was first proposed by the Law Commission in 1958.
- ✎ It was proposed that a statutory or constitutional body such as the UPSC to conduct a standard, centralised exam to recruit and train judges was discussed.
- ✎ Currently Articles 233 and 234 of the Constitution of India deal with the appointment of district judges, and place it in the domain of the states.
- ✎ The selection process is conducted by the State Public Service Commissions
